September Fall Mixed Sale Results

Our East Texas Fall Consignment Sale was held on a great Labor Day Weekend and was attended by buyers from 18 states, Canada and Mexico. There were 412 head consigned on the three day sale and 355 of them were sent to new zip codes for a sale percentage of 86%! The Friday gelding session was filled with good rope/ranch geldings of every color. Saturday's Mixed session included a dispersal for Raymond Havard Quarter Horses and Sunday's session was a production sale for Mr. Buck Daniel of Lake Cattle Co from Okeechobee, Florida. All sessions were well attended and prices were solid.

High Seller for the weekend was consigned by Raymond Havard Quarter Horses - Hip #172, Pepto Bro CD a 2006 Bay Roan Stallion by Peptoboonsmal and out of the tremendous mare CD Chica San Badger who has earnings of over $270K and produce earnings of $348K. This outstanding stallion commanded a sale price of $22,000 and was purchased by Brett Sterling of Tatum, New Mexico.

Second High Seller for the weekend was also part of Raymond Havard's Dispersal and was Hip # 130, Shining Sparkler a classy 1996 Palomino Stallion by Shining Spark and out of the Zan Parr Bar mare Zans Pretty Penny. This versatile stallion has been shown in reining, cutting and roping. He sold to Steven Coates of San Angelo, Texas for $15,000.

Friday's High Selling Gelding was Hip # 16 Poco Triple Magnet. This finished head horse was consigned by Graham Land & Cattle Co of Ada, Oklahoma and sold to Jory Green of Joaquine, Texas for $10,000.

Mr. Buck Daniel's High Selling Sunday horse was Hip #307 Jacks Cash Gold 105 a 2005 Dun gelding sired by Jacks Cash Daniel. This finished heel horse was purchased by Jody Nelson-Dorman of Marshall, Texas for $9,500.

Averages for the weekend were: Top 5 = $14,800, Top 10 = $11,310, Top 15 = $7,660, Top 20 = $7,195. Overall average on the 355 head were $1,856.
